Template of paper accepted for publication in JBES

Paper title: Operationalizing Corporate Purpose Through ESG

Author name 1: xxx[1]
Associate Professor, XXX University, Spain
Author name 2: xxx[2]
Doctoral scholar, XXX University, Spain

Abstract
The abstract must be well-written and succinct. Up to 120 words, with the following structure (no headings, only running text):

- Why is this topic relevant?
- Explain the literature gap
- What are the main study findings

Key words
5 to 6 relevant key words, for the article to be searchable.

Literature review
Needs to be analytical, not simply descriptive (Hart, 2018). As per editorial norms, cite from this journal to show that you are continuing the academic discussion.

Stylistic elements

- APA 7th edition (without DOI numbers)
- Paper length: Up to 7000 words, including references
- Times new Roman, 12 points, double spacing
- British English with 'z' spellings
- More details: https://journal.bmu.edu.in/submission-guidelines

Study limitations and future scope of research
Limitations is an important part of the paper

Date received:
Date published:

Author disclosures (to be written as a note before references):

- All research procedures were conducted in accordance with approved ethical guidelines.
- This contribution has neither been published nor has it been submitted for consideration elsewhere.

  (With the final paper, authors to submit plagiarism and AI-generated content reports of not more than 10% - excluding tables, figures, and references).

[1] ORCID ID: 0009-0007-1159-2176
Corresponding author: Email address
[2] ORCID ID: 0009-0007-1159-3155